Yes, he mentioned you Brandy many times. He said I love all my grandkids and each one so very special but the one grandkid who would give a stranger her last dime or the shirt off her back is Brandy. She didn’t always make the best choices but she has always had a kind charitable heart. ❤️

Mr. Paul, you were a wonderful man who brought joy and love to everyone around you. We had so many great memories with you years ago. My Josh loved you and Ms. Sandy. I remember him always making y'all laugh. I hope y'all are reunited and laughing! Love you. Angela and family, I'm very sorry about Mr. Paul. I know this leaves a big void in your life here, but I know he will always be in your hearts! Sending lots of hugs, prayers and love! Pam “ Wishing you all comfort and peace to face the days ahead and loving memories to hold in all your hearts. It was not so long I was talking to Parrain about our lunch outings down memory lane.

Love always, Danielle & Craig
