“ Patsy Gene Mattison Aubert was the light of my life. Her beauty, spirit, compassion, artistic talent and creativity was undeniable. I pray her spirit is flying free and high. I also pray I have been blessed with even a fraction of her traits. I loved her and will miss her until the day I depart this earth. She always believed in us, encouraged us and would take up for us in a heartbeat if necessary with a lioness mother's fierceness. She was fierce, and anyone who knew her would agree. I am heartbroken.

“ My mother was my strength, encouragement, support, and love. She was always there for me. She was a very strong woman with many take. I'm so lucky to have some of those talents, and most of all her love. I will miss you my sweet Mom.
