

Paulette Sutton McGill

September 18, 1947 - October 18, 2025

Paulette Sutton McGill passed away on Saturday, October 18, 2025, at the age of 78. She was born and raised in Reserve, LA and was a resident of LaPlace, LA where she never met a stranger.

Beloved wife of the late Arnold Grant McGill for 49 years. Loving mother of Ryan Michael McGill (Lisa) and Nicole McGill Bourgeois (Marc). Loving stepmother of Arnold Grant McGill, Jr. (Dena) and Kimberly Denise Picou (Tony). Daughter of the late Viola English Sutton and Melvin Wade Sutton. Sister of the late Melvin Wade Sutton, Jr. Also survived by 15 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

She was a dedicated Ascension of Our Lord church parish weekly volunteer, Perpetual Adoration Adorer, Fatima Rosary group, and AOL Altar Society member. She loved to talk and enjoyed meeting new people and proudly shared her deep faith with those she met. Even if only a brief interaction, she often left a lasting impression on those she encountered. She loved gathering everyone together for a good game and a round of cards which always brought joy and laughter to everyone involved. What brought her the most joy in this life was spending time with her family and being a proud Maw Maw to her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

“ Although I just recently met Ms Paulette we did have a good friendship. Her and I hit it off from the beginning she was telling me all about her family and her friends and the people that she wanted to thank for all the help they have been giving her. She was truly a wonderful lady a lovely lady and a heart of gold all of this from just meeting her about three weeks ago in the hospital I'd go in a room and talk with her. Keep her company when I could Ms Paulette, I will truly miss you. You are a blessing in my life.

Happy you are with Jesus and Arnold and not suffering any longer. We had some good times with that van of yours too! I will not say goodbye but I will hope to see you again one day. 💔🙏✝️*
