“ Memere lived to see 5 generations of family. ❤️ Growing up we would visit and lunch was always at 11:00 and everyone would gather under the big pecan tree to talk. Every time you left her house you had either vegetables or a plant to grow. She will be missed.

“ Aunt Pauline was always so afraid of lizards- so when she was sitting out in the yard, which all the neighbors did we'd sneak up behind her with a blade of grass and run it along the back of her neck. She'd start yelling and rubbing her neck, trying to get the "lizard" off! We had so many great memories made with her and her family living right next door! Our entire family will miss her! Prayers for all !
