“ God had a reason for crossing my path with Ms. Phyllis. We met at rehab both of us with broken legs. Ms. Phyllis told me I was her inspiration each day because she said I never let pain get to me. We laughed together everyday and I checked on her every night. I left her with a box of womens prayers to give her inspiration when I was gone. She loved Chi Chi so much and in the month or so I was at rehab I never saw her happier than when her daughter brought Chi Chi to visit. Ms. Phyllis was a special woman and I will remember our time together. God did not want to see her suffer no more so He called her home. She is a special angel and will keep watch of her loved ones from above and continue to protect them. Rest well Ms. Phyllis you deserve it.
