Dear Debbie it is with deep sympathy to hear of dear sweet Ralph's passing. I had been praying for him ever since Sharon told me about Ralph's serious illness. I have been praying for him every night since then. I tried calling y'all a couple of times however Sharon told me he was in so much pain she didn't think he would feel like talking. Ralph has always been handsome, friendly and so good hearted. He always had that beautiful smile on his face. I have memories from our younger years that I will forever cherish. He was always a hard worker and loving family man. I know he will be missed by all who knew him. I will be praying for you, Kelsey, and Stormy. Kelsey you are everything your dear Dad was. May God bless all of you as you endure this heartbreaking loss. I know ya ll now have a special Angel looking over y'all.
