“ Roger was not only my cousin, he was my life long friend, as close as my brothers to me. From the playpen as babies, hunting in the fields, fishing in the canals, and all the other stuff, to growing up and parenting our kids, we were always close. I'm going to miss you!
“Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength. Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted; but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.”
Isaiah 40:28-31

*In his childhood days having grown up with my sons, Roger was about as close to a son of mine as you could get.
Eternal rest grant unto him Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him, and may his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in Christ.*
