

Samuel Ray

August 10, 1990 - May 13, 2021

Samuel Ray, brilliant artist, expert craftsman, and loving husband to Alison Ray, was taken unexpectedly on May 13, 2021.

He is survived by his parents, Joe and Laurie Ray, siblings, Matt and Katie Ray, grandparents Wilbur and Mary Linda Butts and Freedonia Ray. He is preceded in death by his grandfather Leonard Ray, Sr. He will be sorely missed by his niece Eliana Ray, as well as many cousins, aunt and uncles. Sam was born August 10, 1990 in Panama City Florida. He met his wife, Ali in middle school at Reserve Christian School and from then on they were inseparable and were married for twelve years. He graduated from the New Orleans Center for the Creative Arts and went on to excel in painting, sculpture, music, and woodworking, among many other things. He was a veteran serving in the Navy and deployed on the U.S.S. Whidbey Island. He and his wife have spent the last two years volunteering for a Christian ministry in Florida called Covenant House.

Sam was a genuinely compassionate friend to all who knew him and expressed his love through- often extraordinary- acts of service. He and his siblings all found a close bond through music. His impact on those who knew him is beyond measure and he will be dearly missed.

“ Sam is the NOCCA student I have seen more than any other in my 14 years at the school. His is also the story I have told more than any other student in my time at NOCCA. His amazing self portrait hangs in my office and it is there because of the conversation Sam and I had after the first critique class I ever visited at NOCCA. The gift of his mind and art are with me. I plan on coming up on Thursday to be part of the community that celebrates his incredible life.

Sam was my son Jesse's best bud in Oklahoma. He and Jesse would always find something to get up to. They stayed busy working on projects outside while Matt and Hank stayed busy do other things. Many hours of just hanging with the Ray family . Best time were the visits to Laplace. We used to mess with all the kids. We spoiled them all. However in our pure onry selves Laurie and I used to say Sam and Jesse were our favorites (clearly we were bad parenting 😊) we said it just to agrivate and pick on Matt and Hank. Sam and Jesse just beamed when we would do it. Probably because they were as rotten as we were. Sam was a dear. So talented so creative. Dance and create beauty in the presence of your King -Samuel Ray! Your faith is needed more. For eternity you can sit in the reality of his HOLY Presence! Sing and make music, I know the Lord with be delighted to spend time with you. 💖 Love Miss Lori Lee...

“ Jonathan and Laurie, our heartfelt prayers for you. HE will wipe away every tear from Samuel's eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.
