“ Your family rented my great-grandfather's house next door to us on Hammond Hwy. in the early 1960s. I remember Mr. Sam and Miss Wilda so fondly, and playing with Mark, climbing trees and making mud pies until dark. He once had a small pet alligator! We moved in 1969 and I didn't know the family was still in LaPlace, and I didn't know Mark had passed. I'm sorry for this great loss.

“ Dear Debbie and Family,

I remember I had just arrived in Louisiana circa 1991 and got a call from your Dad as he was heading over to Lafayette because a recent hurrican had done damage to a Flemming Co. warehouse. He wanted to see if he could help with the clean-up. Just like Sam always a standup guy. Ready to help.

*We will all miss him,
Jim and Lee Meehan
Napa Valley, California.*

“ Dearest Debbie & family,

It was with great sadness that I learned of your father's passing. I can't help but think of all of the loving times that you spent with him and how fondly you often shared your memories of those times. May those beautiful memories help to see you through this most difficult time. I pray for peace and comfort for and your family and may God's peace be with you all.

Much love, Freida Holland
