“ There are so many fond memories of Aunt Sophie. It is hard to think of just one. The fondest memory I have is running across Aunt Gladys' yard and seeing Nonnie's car knowing I would spend some time with her and Uncle Ralph.

“ The morning I needed to be at the Custom House to report to duty for the navy. Aunt Sophie and Uncle Ralph helped me get there after spending the night with them. The night before I also got to eat at a great Japanese restaurant w/ them, Daddy, Mama, my friend Mike

“ One of the most special memories of my childhood, was the time my Aunt Sophie and Aunt Hazel showed up at a family gathering in Mount Airy in a new Chevrolet convertible. They were living together in New Orleans, but could just as well have been Hollywood starlets they seemed so glamorous.
