“ I remember his visiting with his "Uncle Connie" in S'port while still young, then coming to visit with his wife Beverly and their two young sons and using Cajun language when asking them to "come sie" meaning come here. Then going to visit him and his family in Reserve when his wife had just gotten back home after her cancer issues and then fun visit with all the kids and grandkids. Then his visit with his "Uncle Connie" at my home in Lakeview, AR in order to help celebrate "Uncle Connie's" birthday. This was the first time I had met his new wife Patsy, who loved visiting in our area and obtaining some wild flowers. While Connie had Alzheimer's Disease he certainly remembered "Randy" and was happy to see him. The last time I saw him unfortunately was at his "Uncle Connie's" funeral in S'port; he expressed his strong care and relationship with his "Uncle Connie"

Through Randy I obtained part of the Robertson genealogy from him which I did not have previously. He obtained it from a co-worker, who in the research proved to be related to the same Robertson family going back to 1690 originally. It was through a joke between the two with the last name Robertson that they were related; guess what, they were!
