“ I have many wonderful memories of Vicki. Having known her since her sister Joann and I were young teens in Jr. High. I will always remember that very beautiful high spirited young lady who would chauffeur us around when our parents couldn't, and letting us do things our parents wouldn't, I remember her and Don when they were dating and how she made such a beautiful Bride. I remember staying overnight at her and Don's first apartment off Cleary for Mardi Gras in Metairie, she was such fun to be around. I remember when she became a new mom with Candy and her big surprise learning she was having bouncing twin boys Donald Jr and Cory. I remember how she loved her family unconditionally and how strong she was for Don when he became ill and for her children when his time grew short. Yes, I remember the high spirited life loving young lady, the beautiful Bride, the glowing new mom, the strong woman who loved unconditionally and.....
I have been blessed to be able to say, I REMEMBER ❤️😭

Rest In Peace my friend, your work is done.
