“ Lonnie, Allison and family- your mom was an inspiration to many of us. I'm proud to call her my friend. I am so sad that y'all have to go through this but know she is at peace with your dad now. Prayers will continue for you all.

“ Lonnie, Allison, Ms. Maude, Russ, Kent and all of your families: My heartfelt condolences to all of you for the loss of your precious mother, daughter, sister, grandmother and friend, sweet Vivian. I went to school through high school with her, and she was a loyal, kind and encouraging friend to me. Praying for Father God's peace for all of you as you learn to live without her for now. May the memories and life lessons learned from her live joyfully in your hearts until you meet again. Rest In Peace my sweet friend Vivian.

“ I’m still trying to come up with the right words to express my sadness in the loss of my friend.

Unlike many of you, I only I met Vivian in 9th grade.... Through others, we developed a friendship that would last forever..

I honestly think that if she could leave us with this one simple message, it would say...

“Grieve not, nor speaks of me with tears...

But, laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you.

I loved you, so.

‘Twas Heaven here with you.”

We love you, Vivian....

“ I met Vivian her husband and my husband Jimmie Doisher where best friends since childhood she was the sweetest strongest kindest person I have ever met .I was living a in Laplace and working at Walmart and she would come shop and we would just talk for the longest time . She will be greatly missed by all who knew her .

“Heaven has truly gained an angel! Vivian and I were classmates for 12 wonderful years.

After high school graduation, we went our separate ways. We both lived in LaPlace, but only saw each other occasionally. It was always fun "catching up" with our busy lives. Our 50th class reunion next year would have been such a nice time to catch up even more. Rest in peace, dear friend. Praying for your family as they mourn, and hope their happy thoughts and memories of you guide them through their grief.

“Vivian and I were classmates from 2nd through 12th. What a wonderful friend she is and was! My parents allowed me to sleep at her home when we were growing up in Norco; I wasn't allowed to sleep over at the homes of most of my friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hymel set an exemplary standard for us to follow. We all knew true love when we saw it; Mr. and Mrs. Hymel have that pure love you see in the movies. That love rubbed off on our Vivian. I can honestly say I never saw or heard Vivian lose her temper. No, not Vivian! She has had a smile that would light up the room. I spoke to her in May and she told me she was feeling fine. We spoke of the upcoming 50th reunion and we both looked forward to catching up with our friends. Rest In Peace, Vivian! I thank God for the Gift of You, Vivian. I am so proud to know another Angel. See you soon, Sweet Lady.

“ I did not know Mrs Vivian for long. Our first meeting was in her home, and it was raining pretty badly outside. To save me from getting super wet, she asked me to sit down in her living room, and we talked about our families for a while. She was very proud of her kids and grand babies. She told me then that she was sick, I guess I just didn't realize how sick she was. I wish that I had the chance to know her longer than 3 months. Lots of love for the family!

“ Our loss is Heaven's gain. She was a remarkable woman and her unwavering faith was a true inspiration. I have said that if I could have just half of Vivian's faith in God and strength during rough times, I could handle anything. She will be missed.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Mrs. Vivian. Although I did not know her well, the times I spent with her she made me feel like family. She was a warm and thoughtful woman I am proud to have known. May you all find peace knowing she is pain free and dancing with the angels. God bless you all and may you rest in peace sweet lady.
